V. G.—J. A. Vansant.
Secretary—George Faulkner.
Treasurer—E. H. Kenner.

Mr. MILLS, of Newburyport, Mass., was insured to amount of $35,000 in several companies, including the Equitable Life. His widow received at his death $17,500. If all had been in the Equitable's indisputable policy, $35,000 would have been paid. Joseph F. Brodick, agent Equitable Life. d31dly

The "Willing Workers" on a Frolic.

Mrs. Cecil's Missionary Band, the little "willing workers," met at the parsonage Thursday evening in company with a select number of friends, to indulge in a masquerade. The band has done a good work the past year, and was in a most amiable mood. The maskers were as follows: Mary Cox, German peasant; Lily Ray Pecor, flower girl; Hattie Eckols, Red Riding Hood; Nettie Howe, Gypsie; May Scudder, French peasant; Florence Darnall, Pink Domino, Mary Perrie, Fisherman's child; Maggie Maltby, snow; Nettie Robinson, Shepperdess; Nettie Newell, Highland girl; Grace and Lucy McMann, Dominos; Mrs. Cecil, Old Mother Crane; Miss Carolyn Oton, Old Lady Quisik; Master Joe Evans, duke; Harry Sulser, Father Glorice; Herbert Holton, Santa Claus; Harry Holmes, Turk; Russell Cecil, Little Boy Blue. Jamie, Tom and Joe Wood, Gordon Sulser, Hall Strode, Mary Eckols and Emma Wood were guests unmasked. After a number of rollicky games were enjoyed, refreshments were served, and the table looked in fine minutes, as one little busy bee said, "like a cyclone had struck it."

Miss May Scudder, in behalf of the "band," presented to Mrs. Cecil a beautiful little gift of affection. The evening closed by Mrs. Oton reciting, in costume, "The Bad Little Girl," that greatly pleased the children. At half-past nine the little merry-makers were snugly bundled up, kissed good-bye, and with a merry and glad new year to all, the sparkling eyes, beaming with happiness, trended homeward.

Carrier's Address.

The carriers of the EVENING BULLETIN, both in this city and Aberdeen, will greet their patrons with a New Year's Address on Monday morning, January 2nd. We believe the carriers have all been faithful in performing their duties during the year, and any favors shown them on this day will certainly be highly appreciated by them. Acts of kindness are never forgotten, and in after years the boys whom you favor on Monday may be able to reciprocate in a manner which you least expect. Carriers always have a kindly feeling for those who remember them on New Year's day.

Captain Wm. E. Austin will call on his subscribers in the afternoon as he delivers his papers.

The Old Dominion Never Tires.

Quite a deal of excitement was created to-day by the announcement that some one here had drawn $15,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery, and there was a general scrutiny of tickets by those who had invested. In a short time it was learned that Mr. T. M. Benson, the efficient chief clerk in the office of the Old Dominion S. S. Co., was the lucky possessor of the ticket.—Norfolk (Va.) Virginia, Nov. 11.

MR. AND MRS. L. W. GALBRAITH entertained the "Home Literary Circle" last evening at their home on Third street. It was also the occasion of the marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith.

HECHINGER & CO.'S AD.

Now for the Most Startling Week's Clothing Sale of the Season:

Never have we come as near closing out our Overcoats and Heavy Suits as we have this year. The remainder of our stock, although composed of very desirable goods, (in fact many of the Overcoats are of the very choicest goods, likewise the Winter Suits), we have placed on our cheap tables, and we say to you they must all go prior to our annual invoice. Those who are so fortunate as not yet to have bought their Overcoats will be amply repaid by coming now. Prices will not be considered. The stock must be closed out. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO.

The Leading Clothiers and Merchant Tailors, Oddfellows' Hall.

Personal.

REV. RUSSELL CECIL, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, will hold services at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Tomorrow there will be Sunday school and bible class at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.—communion after sermon. Annual meeting of the Sunday school and congregation at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. No services at night.

THE Flemingsburg True Blue Democrat says: "Barbour Russell, of the firm of M. C. Russell & Co., Maysville, was in town Monday. Barbour says he will turn over his customers 'on the road' to his younger brother, and will hereafter devote himself to duties at the store. Barbour has a host of friends in this section who will greatly miss his semi-monthly visits."

AN exchange of New Orleans says: "Aiden Benedict has had a very successful week at the Avenue, with "Monte Cristo" as the attraction. Although his version somewhat differs from the one we are accustomed to see O'Neil play, inasmuch as it is given with fewer characters, it is none the less pleasing and elaborate. Benedict himself is a clever actor and his performance was much enjoyed. The company in support was excellent and gave an entertaining performance."

Benedict and company will be at the opera house next Thursday night.

"I Don't Want Relief, But Cure." is the exclamation of thousands suffering from catarrh. To all such we say: Catarrh can be cured by Dr. Sago's Catarrh Remedy. It has been done in thousands of cases; why not in yours? Your danger is in delay. Enclose a stamp to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., for pamphlet on this disease.
